

- Research, select, and present a position (argument/claim) on a current social studies issue by proposing and revising research questions, and

locating and selecting information from multiple and
varied sources,
using appropriate
social studies
tools and methods.

- Develop and present both oral and written pieces on social studies topics which present claims and refute counter claims. Claims are supported with logic, data, and

evidence using
credible sources
and a concluding
statement that follows from and
supports the argument
presented.

- Determine the central ideas or information from a primary or secondary source; provide an accurate summary of the source.
